

Contents

Preface	7
Caroline Y. Robertson-von Trotha NationEUrope and the Challenges of the European Narrative: Introductory Remarks	9
Loukas Tsoukalis Europe's Crisis: The Priest and the Sinner in an Unhappy Church	33
Ulrike Guérot and Tim Kappelt Europe's Future and Its Regions – True Unity in Diversity: How Europe's Regions Must Be Politically Anchored	57
Benjamin R. Barber Mayors Ruling the World: A Global Parliament of Mayors?	71
Peter Murray Civil Society and Civic Change	79
Lajos Bokros Populist Threats to Democracy in Europe: The Responsibility of Mainstream Parties in the West	87
Jeroen Doomernik From Maastricht Treaty to Turkey Deal: How Refugees Exposed Europe's Lack of Solidarity	95
Elisa Ferreira A Portuguese Perspective on the Way Out of the Crisis in a European and German Context	109

Jordi Solé i Ferrando
Catalonia – Our Independence within the European Union	119
Megha Amrith
The Aspirations of Migrants	125
György Dalos
Europe and the Two Little Brothers	141
Pál Hatos
Hungarian Nation Branding – Past and Present	147
Ireneusz Paweł Karolewski and Roland Benedikter
Poland’s New Conservatism and the Populist Challenge	161
Werner J. Patzelt
What Is PEGIDA?	179
Ece Temelkuran
Turkey in Interesting Times	193
Hatem Atallah
Time to Act Together	209
About the Authors	221