

Workshop Threatened Researchers II – Science in Exile. Shared Responsibilities

- Programme (03.12.2018) -

December 6th, 2018

Venue: “Senate Hall”, Engelbert-Arnold Str. 2, 76131 Karlsruhe (building 11.30), KIT Campus South

Register for this event: avh@int.kit.edu

Welcome addresses	10:30 Welcome address and Introduction by Professor Dr. Caroline Y. Robertson-von Trotha, Director of the Center for Cultural and General Studies (ZAK) at Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT) 11:00 Welcome address Dr. Barbara Sheldon, Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, Head Division Strategic Planning
Podium	11:30 Podium: Supporting Networks: Perspectives and Experiences Presented by Professor Dr. Caroline Y. Robertson-von Trotha Coordinator of the German Network of the Anna Lindh Foundation Director of ZAK at KIT Dr. Barbara Sheldon Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, Division Strategic Planning Managing Director Philipp Schwartz Initiative Dr. Johannes Müller Head of Department "International Science", University of Cologne Member of the Steering Group (SG) of Scholars at Risk Germany Section Shreya Balhara Protection Services, Scholars at Risk (SAR), New York Dr. Petra Roth Head of the International Scholars & Welcome Office Member of the Steering Group (SG) of Scholars at Risk Germany Section

Break	12:30	Open discussion – Networking with Light Lunch
Presentation	13:30	Impulse lectures: Shared Responsibilities At-risk Scholars Re-positioned in the European Research Area: An Emerging Space for International Collaboration and Stand for Academic Freedom Dr. Ekrem Düzen, Institute for Interdisciplinary Research on Conflict and Violence, University Bielefeld Experiences in Protection and Placement of At-Risk Scholars Worldwide Shreya Balhara
Workshops	14:00	Working Group I: Visible and invisible barriers Working Group II: Science and Society: individual, institutional, civil societal responsibilities
Break	15:30	Open discussion – Networking (Coffee Break)
Interactive Formats	16:00	Presentation of results of working groups and panel discussion
	17:00	Closing
Colloquium Fundamentale	18:00	Colloquium Fundamentale „Wissenschaft im Exil“ Prof. Dr. Kader Konuk (Vortrag in deutscher Sprache) Professor and Chair of Turkish Studies (Turkistik). University Duisburg-Essen. Director, Academy in Exile
	20:00	Dinner at Guest Lecturers' House Upon registration only; partially on own expense

Kick-Off Event Presentation of the documentary film by Nicole Leghissa “Science in Exile”

December 5, 2018

Venue: “NTI HS”, Engesserstr.5, 76131 Karlsruhe (building 30.10), Campus South

This event is open to the public, no registration is necessary.

Screening	18:00	Welcome address and Introduction by Professor Dr. Thomas Hirth, Vice President for Innovation and International Affairs, KIT Film presentation Science in Exile. Four researchers, in flight from war. They dream of science in a time of peace A documentary by Nicole Leghissa The film „Science in Exile“ by Nicole Leghissa portrays researchers from Syria, Yemen and Iraq, who were forced to leave their homeland and to pursue their re- search in another country. The presentation will take place in the context of the World Science Café series. Discussion with participating scientists facilitated by Shreya Balhara Protection Services, Scholars at Risk (SAR)
Get together	Followed by	Open discussion and get together in the NTI-Foyer

