

Contents

Caroline Y. Robertson-von Trotha Europe: Insights from the Outside An Introduction	9
Susan Neiman Europe/The Outside/Enlightenment	19
Badr Mohammed The Europe of the New Young Germans	25
Ralph Ghadban Europe and Its Foreigners. From Eurocentrism to Multiculturalism	33
Anil Bhatti Remarks on Culture and Diversity	43
Hans Lenk What Is Characteristic of Europe's Unity of Values?	51
J. Peter Burgess Culture Fortress Europa. On the Necessity and Impossibility of Being European	59
Nasr H. Abu Zaid Islam in Europe/Europe Against Islam! Europe, Open Your Eyes	67

Tahir Abbas Being a Muslim Minority Today and the 'Spaces of Hope'	75
Necla Kelek The Freedom that I Mean ... or The Heart – or Wurst – of the Matter	81
Serap Çileli Muslim Women Between Emancipation and Self-Denial	93
Bashy Quraishy A Minority Perspective on the EU's Commitment to Promoting Anti-Discrimination Policies	99
Shigeko Kubota Fostering a 'Religion': Another Side of Multiculturalism	119
Sheela Patel Recasting the Vision of Megacities in the South. Emerging Challenges for the North-South Dialogue in Development	133
Minxin Pei When Illusion Meets Reality: The Evolving Relationship Between China and Europe	143
Mario Gomez Sri Lanka's Search for Sustainable Peace	149
Mona Abousenna Intercultural Dialogue Between European and Non-European Societies in a Globalised World	161

Mourad Wahba
Cultures in Conflict or in Dialogue?
Europe in the 21st Century Seen from Egypt	167
Michael March
"The Individual Is Always Defeated in the End"	171
About the Authors	177